A co-working space in a library might look something like this:

The co-working program can offer the following:

- shared-office space:
 - parking
 - desk, chair, power
 - wireless broadband
 - cafe
 - library card and books, lots of books
 - conference rooms
 - bathrooms
 - comfortable easy chairs for reading and napping
- a place to connect with other motivated:
 - entrepreneurs
 - small business owners
 - hackers
 - social-impact organizations
- help with:
 - business support
 - fund-raising
 - looking for mentors
- simply a collaborative space to brainstorm, design, and create
